Former Partner in Vice of Lucky Luciano Murdered
In New York

DANCER GIVES WARNING

Girl Tells How Four Were Slain for Opposing Rise of $12,000,000 Racket

NEW YORK, Aug. 7—(UP)—A former partner in vice of the millionaire Charles (Lucky) Luciano was slain today on an East Side street, convincing police that a gang war of grave proportions was in the making.

The killing was the fourth bearing the unmistakable stamp of gang methods in less than three weeks. Police already had deduced from the first three that a new vice ring preying on scarlet women was rising to succeed the $12,000,000 a year racket destroyed when Luciano was sent to prison recently with most of his lieutenants.

Today's slaying made them certain.

The victim was Terry Burns, with a police record also as Dominick Didato, who 10 years ago was head of the once powerful Union Sicillione and a boss bootlegger. Luciano got his start with Burns. A few years ago Burns made him a full fledged partner in a chain of rackets.

Luciano kept rising and two years ago sent Burns what, in Chicago, Alphonse (Scarface) Al Capone did to "Big Jim" Colosimo. He kicked him out. Only a few patrolmen on East Side beats had heard anything of Burns since, until today.

Scene Reconstructed

As police reconstructed the scene, Burns was dining in an Italian restaurant on the lower East Side when a man, or men, beckoned him outside.

From the position in which Burns' body was found on the sidewalk a few minutes later, it appeared that he had walked halfway across the sidewalk toward the curb, then turned to flee back to the restaurant.

The first warning that a gang war threatened had come only a few hours before from a young blonde strip dancer.

Four revolver shots hit him, one in the neck, one in the heart, one in his left temple and one in his left ear. His short, fat body skidded three or four feet with the force of his fall.

The girl, Mickey O'Neill, 22, connected the three previous murders for the first time. All, she said, were killed because they resisted the rise of a new vice syndicate.

Attorneys Confer on Publishing Lavender Diary of Mary
Astor—Revelation of Another George Stirs
Interest in Hollywood

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7—(UP)—Intimate details of the life and loves of the Hollywood film colony, as related in the Lavender Diary of Mary Astor may become public today during a conference of attorneys for Dr. Franklyn Thorpe, Miss Astor's former husband.

The conference was planned by Joseph Anderson, chief of Dr. Thorpe's counsel. He said that a decision may be reached to publish parts of the diary—whose 184 pages are reported replete with big names in the movie industry.

Renewed interest in the diary swept Hollywood with the revelation that a second George figured in the writings of Miss Astor. The original George of the diary was George S. Kaufman, Broadway playwright, Anderson said, adding that the second George was a new York writer.

He refused to discuss the second George. The section of the diary in which his name appeared has not been entered in the court records, he said. Kaufman's name entered into the trial record in an affidavit introduced by Dr. Thorpe.

PILOTS OF DEATH
PLANE CLEARED

Airmen Had No Warning of Danger—Fog Blamed By Inquest Witnesses

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 7—(UP)—Witnesses called to an inquest agreed today that pilots of the airplane that crashed north of St. Louis Wednesday night, killing eight men, had no warning of danger and drove the craft into the ground at its full 180 miles an hour.

After 24 hours of examination of wreckage and questioning of persons who heard or saw the plane before it crashed, department of commerce investigators concluded tentatively that the accident was due to fog.

Coroner L. B. Tiernon summoned Maj. R. W. Schroder, chief of the airway inspection service of the department of commerce, A. S. Koch, federal aeronautical inspector, employees of the Chicago & Southern Airlines, and farmers living near the scene of the crash, to an inquest.

The witness who probably last saw the 10-passenger, $50,000 Lockheed - Electra monoplane before it struck earth was Ben Knobbe, a farmer. His home is about a mile south of the field, a few miles north of Lambert-St. Louis airport, where the plane fell.

"I had gone into the barn for a minute," he said, "when I heard the motors of the plane wide open. I ran out and saw the plane coming toward the barn. It flew so low that it grazed a tree. A few minutes later the motors stopped. I couldn't see anything."

Inspector Koch said no evidence of mechanical failure was found in the plane debris, so investigators theorized that the moment when Knobbe heard the motors die was virtually the plane's last. One of the two pilots might have seen the earth through the fog and cut the switch a split second before the ship struck, they thought.

GERMAN BANKS
ORDERED TO BALK
EXPORT TO U. S.

BERLIN, Aug. 7—(UP)—Another severe check to German-American trade relations was established today when the Reichsbank instructed German banking institutions not to bank registered marks for financing export of German goods to the United States.

There was no government decree concerning the new rule on trade. Reliable sources reported that the Reichsbank was proceeding within its own jurisdiction.

It was the third step within a week to restrict German-American trade relations, a move considered retaliatory against United States action of imposing countervailing duties against German goods.

In Mixed Baby Case

LOUISE Madeline Garner, 17-year-old "baby mixup" girl of Atlanta, Ga., has decided that Mrs. John C. Garner of Macon, Ga., is her real mother.

Louise was involved in a baby mixup at a hospital in 1919 and was reared by Mrs. D. L. Pittman of Atlanta. Recently a court gave her power to pick her own parents. Louise selected the Garners.

OHIO'S SAFEST
AUTO DRIVER IS
PLUMBER, AGE 54

COLUMBUS, Aug. 7—(UP)—Charles D. Kisthardt, 54, of Wickliffe, O., holds a record few motorists can boast. He has been driving an automobile 21 years without being involved in a traffic accident.

Kisthardt was chosen Ohio's "safest automobile driver" today in a state-wide contest sponsored by the C. I. T. Foundation, under auspices of the American Automobile Association.

A plumbing and heating contractor, Kisthardt estimates he has driven 945,000 miles. He is eligible to represent Ohio at a two-day motorists' clinic in New York City, starting Aug. 31.

PUBLIC HANGING
DECREEED FOR KENTUCKY NEGRO

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 7—(UP)—Rainey Betha, 22-year-old negro, will be hanged publicly in the Daviess county court yard at Owensboro, Aug. 14 for assault on a white woman, Mrs. Eliza Edwards, 70, by order of Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Mrs. Fornoe Thompson, woman sheriff at Owensboro, will officiate at the hanging. She has indicated she will spring the death trap. Betha lost an appeal before Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton at Louisville Wednesday.

COURT UNABLE TO FIND
TWELVE NON-GAMBLERS

"Miss Pumpkin Show" Is To Be Opening Feature of Annual Celebration

An industrial parade may be the outstanding event of the annual Pumpkin Show. Directors of the show met Thursday evening in the city hall and increased premiums for the parade. Business houses will be solicited and industrial plants urged to enter floats.

Directors voted against a county school parade as Supt. George D. McDowell of the county schools is not in favor of such an event since the county institutions are participating in the junior fair, held in the armory, and 4H clubs, comprised entirely of rural children, have their annual exhibit.

Proctor Baughman, chairman of parades, believes it will be possible to add the industrial section to every evening parade during the show. He plans to start work at once to obtain a large number of entries.

Beauty Parade

The opening feature of the show, known in the last few years, as a "Beauty Parade" will be named the "Miss Pumpkin Show" parade, starting this year.

Mack Parrett Jr., show secretary, was informed Wednesday by the tax commission of Ohio that no sales tax will be collected from stands and concessions participating in the show. The ruling submitted to Parrett said that the show is regarded as agricultural and is not taxable.

The horse show, directed by Elmer E. Wolf, promises to be the best in years. Mr. Wolf has ap-

HAMILTON AND BORAH TO TALK
G. O. P. POLITICS

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 7—(UP)—National Republican Chairman John D. M. Hamilton left here today for a meeting with Sen. William E. Borah either in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, or in Spokane, Wash.

The meeting place of the two was not definitely decided upon, although last night they congratulated each other on being able to arrange a meeting.

Borah, a question mark since the party's convention that nominated Gov. Alf. M. Landon, of Kansas, for president, was in northern Idaho on a speaking tour.

Hamilton called the veteran senator by telephone, talked for a few minutes and announced there would be a meeting, indicating that Borah suggested it.

"I hope Borah sees fit to fall in behind the national Republican party," Hamilton said, but he would not guess the tenor of his interview with the senator.

WOMEN COLLAPSE AS MINE RELEASES DEAD

BARNESLEY, England, Aug. 7—(UP)—Many women collapsed today as they visited the temporary morgue in the village school to identify relatives among the 32 bodies so far recovered from the coal pit here after an explosion yesterday.

Search for 25 others in the mine continued, but all hope that they were alive had been abandoned. All during the night, squads carrying corpses on stretchers stumbled awkwardly along the two miles of low, treacherous roadway in the mine.

The explosion was followed by gas which sealed the doom of any who might otherwise have escaped.

GIRL IS WINNER
AS FIRST BABY
OF THE MONTH

The first baby of August was a long time in coming, but when it did arrive it came as a 10-pound 4-ounce daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Eitel, W. Water street. The child was born at 5:10 p. m. Thursday, six days after it was eligible to win the prizes. Dr. B. R. Bales was the attending physician.

The arrival of the little girl as the first prize of the month ends a three-month grasp boys have had on the prizes. In May a son of Mr. and Mrs. Muri Thornton was first; in June, the prizes went to the little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, and July saw the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kochensperger capture honors.

The girl is the first born to Mr. and Mrs. Eitel. The mother was Verdale Poling before her marriage. The father farms with his father, George Eitel, Circleville township.

Several of Circleville's progressive merchants band together to provide gifts for the child and its parents because it is the first of the month. The list includes a pass to the Cliftona theatre for August, five gallons of Puro-Pep gasoline by the Stout service station, a floral tribute by the Brehmer greenhouses, a $1 savings account at the Circleville Savings and Banking Co., a week's supply of bread and an angel food cake by the W. E. Wallace bakery, a quart of milk daily for two weeks by the Circle City Dairy, a three months' subscription to The Herald, a carton of six 60-watt lamps by the Southern Ohio Electric Co., wishes for good health and happiness by the W. H. Albaugh Co., and a box of cigars to the daddy by the Mecca restaurant.

CURFEW ORDER
GOES IN EFFECT
MONDAY NIGHT

The fire bell will ring four times each evening at 8:30 o'clock to warn boys and girls under 15 years of age to get off the streets.

Mayor W. J. Graham conferred with Fire Chief Talmer Wise, Friday, concerning the call most likely effective.

The curfew order of the mayor will go in effect next Monday.

Nation's Housewives

BLAME PUT ON DROUGHT

Beef Stocks Soon Will Be Smaller Than Following
Disastrous 1934

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(UP)—Cheering news for cattle and hog raisers, but depressing tidings for the American housewife were contained today in the agriculture department's prediction of higher meat prices.

The drought, resulting in short stocks of feed-stuff for cattle and parched ranges, was blamed by the agriculture department for the predicted rise in prices. Experts anticipated that by next year meat stocks would be as small or smaller than in 1935, following the disastrous drought of 1934.

Meantime, what the agriculture department now frankly terms "the worst drought in American history" continued to spread in area and intensity.

Drought Spreading

The drought committee last night added 85 new counties to the area in need of federal relief. The parched regions now extend over 841 counties in 20 states.

Searching into the national livestock situation, agricultural experts found there were 68,213 head of cattle on American ranches at the beginning of this year. This was about 300,000 head less than at the beginning of 1935 and 6,049,000 less than on January 1, 1934. The 1934 drought is responsible for the successive decrease and this year's summer heat, naturally, is expected to add to it.

Turn From Beef

It appears that the American diet may turn to pork and mutton. The department estimated that the supply of hogs during the fall season will be from 10 to 20 per cent higher than in 1935 or 1934. Sheep too, are increasing.

Even so, they are likely to be higher in price because of increased public demand for meat.

CITY STUDIES
FOUR BIDS FOR POLICE AUTO

The city board of education has not decided which of four bids received for sale of a new automobile for the police department will be accepted. Mayor W. J. Graham, Safety Director Charles O. Caskey and Service Director Jack Mavis comprise the board.

The bids were submitted Wednesday, but when they were opened officials found that a specification in the advertisement demanding that certified checks for $100 accompany the bids had not been complied with.

Solicitor Carl Leist has found two rulings in such a case, one throwing out a purchase as illegal and the other permitting to go through.

Mayor Graham said he is uncertain when action will be taken.

NO BEER SIGN
RULE RAPPED BY APPEALS COURT

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 7—(UP)—By a two to one vote, the district court of appeals here today upheld Franklin county common pleas Judge Dana Reynolds in his decision holding invalid a regulation of the state liquor department, which prohibited beer and liquor advertising signs on the outside of the establishments of permittees.

The majority decision, written by Judge Joseph D. Barnes and concurred in by Judge Lowell Bodley, held that the regulation was an attempt by the liquor board to exercise legislative power and was therefore unconstitutional.

AKRON POLICE INJURE SIX IN STRIKE BATTLE

AKRON, O., Aug. 7—(UP)—The entire Akron police force of 176 men took command of the city garage which union city employees blockaded for 24 hours because 15 street repair workers were laid off.

Six pickets—members of a new street repair workers union—were clubbed in the hand-to-hand fighting as steel-helmeted officers moved into the garage yard.

The fighting started after Acting Police Chief E. J. Heffernan and Fire Chief William F. Wochton were suspended from duty by Mayor Lee D. Schroy for failure to charge the group of 500 strikers and sympathizers massed at the garage yesterday.

Spared by Court

HIS life spared by a magistrate at Brockport, N. Y., where he was on "trial" accused of the drowning of a boy, this tawny mongrel pup—Idaho—poses for his picture. Idaho was sentenced to 26 months confinement, however, and orders were given to police to shoot him on sight if he was found at large in Brockport during the confinement. During the five-hour trial, attended by 300 persons, Idaho yelped with delight, shied away from photographers' lights and several times went to sleep. He is owned by Victor Fortune of Brockport.

LAND OWNERS APPEAL FROM COUNTY AWARDS

Notice has been filed with Auditor Forrest Short that Jack Redman and Australia Calloway, heirs of the Redman estate, will appeal the awards allowed by the county commissioners for damages and land in the vicinity of the Hargus creek bridge project.

The appeal will not hinder work at the bridge site.

The Redman heirs sought $150 for land and $150 for damages, but the commissioners allowed only $75 for land and nothing for damages.

Although Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales were awarded only $500 when they asked $2,000, no notice of appeal has been filed yet in their case.

The hearing was held last Monday and persons involved have 10 days in which to file notice of appeal.

Auditor Short, under the law, will now prepare a transcript of all documents involved in the controversy for submission to probate court. A jury, sitting before Judge C. C. Young, will determine whether the amounts awarded are satisfactory.

The cost of the Hargus creek project is estimated at $29,760 of which the county is furnishing $7,840.

The newspaper L'Ouvre put it: "It is hardly necessary to say that thus far the entire European press has not heard of this quadruple shooting."

Sources often reflecting authoritative views charged without qualification that the German cruiser Deutschland has landed munitions in rebel-held Spanish Morocco, and even aided in troop transport; and that the German steamship Nassau has left Hamburg with 23 bombing planes, pilots, mechanics, and munitions—presumably for Morocco.

BOLT TO LONDON CONSIDERED AT DETROIT PARLEY

DETROIT, Aug. 7—(UP)—Widespread sentiment for a bolt to the Republican presidential candidacy of Gov. Alf. M. Landon developed here today among Jeffersonian Democrats convening to organize national opposition to President Roosevelt.

There appeared to be no enthusiasm for a Jeffersonian Democratic ticket in this campaign. The conference leaders had for release a list of anti-Roosevelt spokesmen from 22 states who have accepted invitations to meet here.

First arrivals were agreed that the only practical way to fight the New Deal this year would be to pledge their organization to a Landon-Knox ticket.

They explained, however, they were expressing independent opinions and preferred not to commit themselves until the national conference has finished its election year session.

Spanish Problem Becomes
One of War Between Reds and Dictators

PARIS, Aug. 7—(UP)—Discussion between the Fascist and democratic countries of Europe over the Spanish rebellion reached a point of real danger today.

Anxiety in France became acute. It was feared that enraged Nazi Germany might intervene actively in reprisal for the alleged murder by extremists in Barcelona of four Germans.

The left wing government, viewing gravely the state of mind of France's neighbors Italy and Germany, sought to rush through a neutrality agreement among the powers before it was too late, and dispatched to London a simple formula which was understood to provide:

"The undersigned governments engage themselves from this date no longer to furnish Spain with war materials."

But on Aug. 6

This would be implemented by specific definitions of arms or materials not to be furnished, and would be signed by France, Belgium, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Russia and Portugal.

But the Spanish problem has become, irrevocably now, one of a fight between a left wing Democratic government and a Fascist rebellion but one between the dictators of Europe and capitalism, under whatever name it goes.

Alarmist reports multiplied. Reports from Berlin were that Adolf Hitler already has ordered two cruisers and a flotilla of destroyers to reinforce his fleet in Spanish waters.

French newspapers continued not only to charge openly that Germany and Italy were arming the Spanish rebels, but even cast doubt on Germany's charge that four of her nationals were killed at Barcelona.

MURDER DOUBTED

WOMEN COLLAPSE AS MINE RELEASES DEAD

BARNESLEY, England, Aug. 7—(UP)—Many women collapsed today as they visited the temporary morgue in the village school to identify relatives among the 32 bodies so far recovered from the coal pit here after an explosion yesterday.

Search for 25 others in the mine continued, but all hope that they were alive had been abandoned. All during the night, squads carrying corpses on stretchers stumbled awkwardly along the two miles of low, treacherous roadway in the mine.

The explosion was followed by gas which sealed the doom of any who might otherwise have escaped.

GIRL IS WINNER AS FIRST BABY OF THE MONTH

The first baby of August was a long time in coming, but when it did arrive it came as a 10-pound 4-ounce daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Eitel, W. Water street. The child was born at 5:10 p. m. Thursday, six days after it was eligible to win the prizes. Dr. E. R. Bales was the attending physician.

The arrival of the little girl as the first prize of the month ends a three-month grasp boys have had on the prizes. In May a son of Mr. and Mrs. Muri Thornton was first; in June, the prizes went to the little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, and July saw the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kochensperger capture honors.

The girl is the first born to Mr. and Mrs. Eitel. The mother was Verdale Poling before her marriage. The father farms with his father, George Eitel, Circleville township.

Several of Circleville's progressive merchants band together to provide gifts for the child and its parents because it is the first of the month. The list includes a pass to the Cliftona theatre for August, five gallons of Puro-Pep gasoline by the Stout service station, a floral tribute by the Bremer greenhouses, a $1 savings account at the Circleville Savings and Banking Co., a week's supply of bread and an angel food cake by the W. E. Wallace bakery, a quart of milk daily for two weeks by the Circle City Dairy, a three months' subscription to The Herald, a carton of six 60-watt lamps by the Southern Ohio Electric Co., wishes for good health and happiness by the W. H. Albaugh Co., and a box of cigars to the daddy by the Mecca restaurant.

CURFEW ORDER GOES IN EFFECT MONDAY NIGHT

The fire bell will ring four times each evening at 8:30 o'clock to warn boys and girls under 15 years of age to get off the streets.

Mayor W. J. Graham conferred with Fire Chief Talmer Wise, Friday, concerning the call most likely effective.

The curfew order of the mayor will go in effect next Monday.

MEAT PRICES HEADED UPWARD, CAPITAL SAYS

Cheering News for Stockmen Proves Depressing for Nation's Housewives

BLAME PUT ON DROUGHT

Beef Stocks Soon Will Be Smaller Than Following Disastrous 1934

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(UP)—Cheering news for cattle and hog raisers, but depressing tidings for the American housewife were contained today in the agriculture department's prediction of higher meat prices.

The drought, resulting in short stocks of feed-stuff for cattle and parched ranges, was blamed by the agriculture department for the predicted rise in prices. Experts anticipated that by next year meat stocks would be as small or smaller than in 1935, following the disastrous drought of 1934.

Meantime, what the agriculture department now frankly terms "the worst drought in American history" continued to spread in area and intensity.

Drought Spreading

The drought committee last night added 85 new counties to the area in need of federal relief. The parched regions now extend over 841 counties in 20 states.

Searching into the national livestock situation, agricultural experts found there were 68,213 head of cattle on American ranches at the beginning of this year. This was about 300,000 head less than at the beginning of 1935 and 6,049,000 less than on January 1, 1934. The 1934 drought is responsible for the successive decrease and this year's Summer heat, naturally, is expected to add to it.

Turn From Beef

It appears that the American diet may turn to pork and mutton. The department estimated that the supply of hogs during the fall season will be from 10 to 20 per cent higher than in 1935 or 1934. Sheep too, are increasing.

Even so, they are likely to be higher in price because of increased public demand for meat.

NO BEER SIGN RULE RAPPED BY APPEALS COURT

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 7—(UP)—By a two to one vote, the district court of appeals here today upheld Franklin county common pleas Judge Dana Reynolds in his decision holding invalid a regulation of the state liquor department, which prohibited beer and liquor advertising signs on the outside of the establishments of permittees.

The majority decision, written by Judge Joseph D. Barnes and concurred in by Judge Lowell Bodley, held that the regulation was an attempt by the liquor board to exercise legislative power and was therefore unconstitutional.

$2,000,000 IS VALUE PUT ON GOOD ESTATE

LANCASTER, Aug. 7—The estate of Edward B. Good, Lancaster glass manufacturer, is valued at more than $2,000,000 in an inventory and appraisement filed in probate court. The property is itemized with $5,069 in personal goods, $35 in money, $1,958,208 in stocks and securities, $32,913 in accounts, and $66,800 in real estate.

AKRON POLICE INJURE SIX IN STRIKE BATTLE

AKRON, O., Aug. 7 — (UP) — The entire Akron police force of 176 men took command of the city garage which union city employees blockaded for 24 hours because 15 street repair workers were laid off.

Six pickets — members of a new street repair workers union — were clubbed in the hand-to-hand fighting as steel-helmeted officers moved into the garage yard. The fighting started after Acting Police Chief E. J. Heffernan and Fire Chief William F. Woelton-Somerses were suspended from duty by Mayor Lee D. Schroy for failure to charge the group of 500 strikers and sympathizers massed at the garage yesterday.

Spared by Court

HIS life spared by a magistrate at Brockport, N. Y., where he was on "trial" accused of the drowning of a boy, this tawny mongrel pup — Idaho — poses for his picture. Idaho was sentenced to 26 months confinement, however, and orders were given to police to shoot him on sight if he was found at large in Brockport during the confinement. During the five-hour trial, attended by 300 persons, Idaho yelped with delight, shied away from photographers' lights and several times went to sleep. He is owned by Victor Fortune of Brockport.

LAND OWNERS APPEAL FROM COUNTY AWARDS

Notice has been filed with Auditor Forrest Short that Jack Redman and Australia Calloway, heirs of the Redman estate, will appeal the awards allowed by the county commissioners for damages and land in the vicinity of the Hargus creek bridge project.

The appeal will not hinder work at the bridge site. The Redman heirs sought $150 for land and $150 for damages, but the commissioners allowed only $75 for land and nothing for damages.

Although Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bales were awarded only $500 when they asked $2,000, no notice of appeal has been filed yet in their case.

The hearing was held last Monday and persons involved have 10 days in which to file notice of appeal.

Auditor Short, under the law, will now prepare a transcript of all documents involved in the controversy for submission to probate court. A jury, sitting before Judge C. C. Young, will determine whether the amounts awarded are satisfactory.

The cost of the Hargus creek project is estimated at $29,760 of which the county is furnishing $7,840.

BOLT TO LANDON CONSIDERED AT DETROIT PARLEY

DETROIT, Aug. 7 — (UP)—Widespread sentiment for a bolt to the Republican presidential candidacy of Gov. Alf. M. Landon developed here today among Jeffersonian Democrats convening to organize national opposition to President Roosevelt.

There appeared to be no enthusiasm for a Jeffersonian Democratic ticket in this campaign. The conference leaders had for release a list of anti-Roosevelt spokesmen from 22 states who have accepted invitations to meet here.

First arrivals were agreed that the only practical way to fight the New Deal this year would be to pledge their organization to the Landon-Knox ticket.

They explained, however, that they were expressing individual opinions and preferred not to commit themselves until the Jeffersonian conference has formally adopted election year strategy.

FRANCE FEARS NAZIS PREPARE FOR REPRISALS

Berlin Enraged by Killing of Four Germans by Barcelona Extremists

PARIS SCORES BERLIN

Spanish Problem Becomes One of War Between Reds and Dictators

PARIS, Aug. 7—(UP)—Division between the Fascist and democratic countries of Europe over the Spanish rebellion reached a point of real danger today.

Anxiety in France became acute. It was feared that enraged Nazi Germany might intervene actively in reprisal for the alleged murder by extremists in Barcelona of four Germans.

The left wing government, viewing gravely the state of mind of France's neighbors Italy and Germany, sought to rush through a neutrality agreement among the powers before it was too late, and dispatched to London a simple formula which was understood to provide:

"The undersigned governments engage themselves from this date no longer to furnish Spain arms or war materials."

Ban on Arms

This would be implemented by specific definitions of arms or materials not to be furnished, and would be signed by France, Belgium, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Russia and Portugal.

But the Spanish problem has become, irrevocably now, one not alone of a fight between a left wing Democratic government and a Fascist rebellion but one between the dictators of Europe and radicalism, under whatever name it goes.

Alarmist reports multiplied. Reports from Berlin were that Adolf Hitler already has ordered two cruisers and a flotilla of destroyers to reinforce his fleet in Spanish waters.

French newspapers continued not only to charge openly that Germany and Italy were arming the Spanish rebels, but even cast doubt on Germany's charge that four of her nationals were killed at Barcelona.

Murder Doubtful

The newspaper L'Ouvre put it: "It is hardly necessary to say that thus far the entire European press has not heard of this quadruple shooting."

Sources often reflecting authoritative views charged without qualification that the German cruiser Deutschland has landed munitions in rebel-held Spanish Morocco, and even aided in troop transport; and that the German steamship Nassau has left Hamburg with 28 bombing planes, pilots, mechanics, and munitions—presumably for Morocco.

YOUNG S CHANGE IN LIEF PLANS

Single Administrator for Each County Believed to be Certainty

DETAILS IN MAKING

Pickaway Official Voices
Opinion After Parley
at State Capital

Probate Judge Charles C. Young believes that the next six months will see a great change in the administration of all charitable organizations financed by local, state and federal funds. By virtue of his office, Judge Young is a member of the county board of public assistance to work under the Social Security Act. A county commissioner and two private citizens are also to become members.

"I believe that everything is gradually working around toward a single administrator in each county to handle all relief for blind, dependent, children, old age pensions, and other work necessary under the Social Security Act," the judge declared today after a trip to Columbus to discuss the work of the county board of public assistance with Henry Robinson, federal official.

There is much detail work yet to be done before such an organization can be put into effect.

The administrator over all work, subject to review of the board of assistance, Judge Young thinks. He would select capable office employees to assist him. At present Tom D. Krinn and his assistant Claude Ater, have their hands full taking care of 700-odd pensioners receiving money each month. By comparing the work done by these two men, and the additional burdens of dependent children, blind, etc., it is certain the centralized office, if such a step is taken, will be a large and important one.

The new payment plan for children, which is transferred from a department called Mothers' Pension to be named Dependent Children, will be in operation yet this month. The plan will provide aid to parents, relatives or guardians who must support dependent children. Under provisions of the Social Security Act, parents or guardians will be entitled to a maximum of $18 a month for the first child and $10 a month for each additional child.

Whether the maximum figure will be paid will depend on the amount of money available and the conditions of the individual cases. State, county and federal governments will match funds for the purpose. The federal government has made no allocation pending approval of local set-ups. Mothers' pensions have been in operation since 1914.

Remember When?

C. L. Moeller and Pearl Hoffman narrowly escaped drowning in the Scioto river.

The men were duck hunting along the river on March 22, when their boat capsized in the strong current near a small island near Hopetown. Both clung to branches until they were rescued by a farmer living near the island. They lost their boat, ducks and guns.

Circleville Soldiers Enjoying Camp Knox

Circleville's 60 young men enrolled in Camp Knox, Ky., for the war maneuvers of National Guardsmen are having a lot of fun, regardless of the strenuous program outlined for them. Staff Sergeant Rockford Brown with the medical detachment has written back home describing the "Camp Knox Scandal Sheet".

Some of the musings from Brown's pen include:

A foot race between Lt. Ezra "Doc" Austin and Lt. Frank "Chee" Littleton was won by Austin by a nose.

A watermelon eating contest between Rocky Brown, Red Reichelderfer and John McGinnis was won by Brown by the close margin of three seeds.

The laziest man in the camp is without a particle of doubt a dead heat between every man in the company.

Lloyd Leasure went after the cannon report and on the way back he lost the keys to the rifle range thus labeling him as the dumbest man in camp.

Sergeants Kenneth Young and

Merle Thompson have joined the House of David so they won't have to shave.

Bill Hegele is hard to get along with since he pitched a no-hit game against the blind, lame and lazy softball team from Ridge Run, Kentucky.

Between eating beans and smoking his pipe Louis Lockard has no time for anything else except sleeping 15 minutes every 24 hours.

The champion dishwasher is Don Morris with Frank "Jabbo" Wilkerson as a close second.

Lt. "Doc" Kerns is grieving over the fact that he has no dogs to quarantine.

Circleville Soldiers Enjoying Camp Knox

Circleville's 60 young men enrolled in Camp Knox, Ky., for the war maneuvers of National Guardsmen are having a lot of fun, regardless of the strenuous program outlined for them. Staff Sergeant Rockford Brown with the medical detachment has written back home describing the "Camp Knox Scandal Sheet".

Some of the musings from Brown's pen include:

A foot race between Lt. Ezra "Doc" Austin and Lt. Frank "Chef" Littleton was won by Austin by a nose.

A watermelon eating contest between Rocky Brown, Red Reichelderfer and John McGinnis was won by Brown by the close margin of three seeds.

The laziest man in the camp is without a particle of doubt a dead heat between every man in the company.

Lloyd Leasure went after the cannon report and on the way back he lost the keys to the rifle range thus labeling him as the dumbest man in camp.

Sergeants Kenneth Young and

Merle Thompson have joined the House of David so they won't have to shave.

Bill Hegele is hard to get along with since he pitched a no-hit game against the blind, lame and lazy softball team from Ridge Run, Kentucky.

Between eating beans and smoking his pipe Louis Lockard has no time for anything else except sleeping 15 minutes every 24 hours.

The champion dishwasher is Don Morris with Frank "Jabbo" Wilkerson as a close second.

Lt. "Doc" Kerns is grieving over the fact that he has no dogs to quarantine.

LINDSEY FUNERAL

Funeral services were held in Columbus Thursday afternoon with burial following in Forest cemetery for Mrs. Nettie Lindsey, 83, aunt of Mrs. Al Palm of Circleville, who died in Columbus Tuesday. Mrs. Lindsey is also survived by a son, Marvin Lindsey of Ashville, a daughter, Mrs. Effie McBee of Columbus, 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

CATTLE MISSING

Ira Carpenter, Muhlenberg township farmer, has asked Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff to help hunt two white-face heifers missing from his property since last Friday. He believes the animals, weighing about 600 pounds each, walked away through a faulty place in the fence.

BIG BILL JOINS TOWNSENDITES FOR VOTE WARS

Thompson Promises Platform That Will Curl Hair of Illinois Voters

AGAIN RAPS BRITISH Former Mayor of Chicago Is Resurrected to Serve Coughlin's Party

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—(UP)—Former Mayor William Hall (Big Bill) Thompson, sworn antagonist of everything pro-British, barged back into Illinois' political maelstrom today as the Lemke-Townsend candidate for governor.

"I'm going to announce a platform that'll curl their hair," promised the blustery three-time mayor who threatened once to punch the king of England in the nose if he came this way.

"This is going to be a battle like Illinois never saw before. For one thing, we're going to find out whether this country is a tail to England's kite."

Thompson, who made half-hearted and ineffectual pass at securing nomination in the primaries, was resurrected from the shelf Thursday on behalf of the union party supported by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Dr. Francis E. Townsend and Huey Long's successor, the Rev. Gerald R. Smith, in behalf of presidential candidate William Lemke.

Willingly, he offered himself as the means by which the Lemke-Townsend forces hope to present a full ticket in Illinois in the November election.

Newton Jenkins, state union party director who announced Thompson's emergence, explained that the third party is interested principally in offices of president, U. S. senator and congressman.

"In order to run a senator and congressman-at-large, it is necessary under the law to present a full ticket," Jenkins explained. Jenkins himself has been urged to run for senator.

SHAKEUP LOOMS IN COMMAND OF SECRET SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(UP) A shake-up in the high command of the United States secret service appeared probable today as an aftermath of demotions of two prominent agents for "spying" on the G-men.

Assistant Chief Joseph E. Murphy, who was in line to succeed the 72-year-old Chief William H. Moran, on retirement, was "set down" to command of a regional office because he allegedly gave verbal orders for prying into affairs of the federal bureau of investigation headed by J. Edgar Hoover.

Treasury circles speculated as to Murphy's successor. Affable J. Q. Slye, special assistant to Moran, is regarded as the probable choice. He was personal bodyguard for President Wilson. He is in his early fifties.

Secretary of Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., who expressed regret in a formal letter to Attorney General Homer S. Cummings at "this irresponsible action," said he considered the affair "terminated."

Cummings said that he "regarded the matter closed" by Morgenthau's "fine letter."

Chief Agent Grady L. Boatwright, of the St. Paul office, the other offender, will be sent into the field.

Boatwright, who has been in the service 12 years, was alleged by Morgenthau to have exceeded even the orders of Murphy and then "did not tell the truth about it."

Boatwright was attached in former years to the White House detail before going to St. Paul. His home was Salt Lake City.

SCIENCE ADVISES AGAINST MEALS LOW IN NEEDED "BULK"

Reports ALL-BRAN Supplies This Dietary Adjunct

Scientific tests have shown that meals which miss the proper "bulk" tend to cause common constipation. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches, loss of appetite, even serious disease.

Avoid these faulty meals by adding Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to your menus. It supplies generous "bulk" in convenient form. This absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is often more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN may be served as a cereal with milk or cream. Sprinkle over soups, salads or other cereals. Or work into appetizing muffins, breads, waffles, etc. It adds a delicious nut-sweet flavor to your recipes.

How much better than taking patent medicines—sometimes harmful! ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

8 KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

EIGHT persons, including five Chicagoans and three veteran pilots, were killed in the crash of a transport plane last night (August 5) about three miles north of the St. Louis municipal airport. The plane was northbound from New Orleans and crashed a few minutes after taking off from the St. Louis airport. The wreckage is pictured above.

LEWIS SPEEDING ORGANIZATION OF REBEL GROUPS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(UP) Accepting suspension from the American Federation of Labor as final, John L. Lewis accelerated the drive of his "rebel" committee of industrial organization to day toward 3,000,000 new members.

Lewis said he had no intention of reopening the case which resulted in suspension of the 10 C. I. O. unions with a membership of 1,000,000 on charges of insurrection and fomenting dual unionism.

William Green, A. F. of L. president, who led the fight to oust Lewis and his associates, likewise declined to comment upon the executive council's action, which, in effect, shattered 50 years of union solidarity.

Further action in the dispute that has kept labor leaders in a furor since last fall is not expected until the A. F. of L. national convention in Tampa, Fla., Nov. 16. Then a credentials committee named by Green will decide if delegates from ousted C. I. O. unions may be seated.

Terming the break in federation ranks "unfortunate," Green said "I've said all I have to say."

He called the council into session on unions which retain their affiliation with the C. I. O.

MAYOR ASSESSES FINE

Pearl Lovenheimer, of Elm avenue, was fined $10 and costs by Mayor W. J. Graham Friday for intoxication and disorderly conduct. He was arrested in an uptown street. Lovenheimer paid $8.70 costs and arranged to pay the fine.

SCIENCE ADVISES AGAINST MEALS LOW IN NEEDED "BULK"

Reports ALL-BRAN Supplies This Dietary Adjunct

Scientific tests have shown that meals which miss the proper "bulk" tend to cause common constipation. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches, loss of appetite, even serious disease.

Avoid these faulty meals by adding Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to your menus. It supplies generous "bulk" in convenient form. This absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is often more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN may be served as a cereal with milk or cream. Sprinkle over soups, salads or other cereals. Or work into appetizing muffins, breads, waffles, etc. It adds a delicious nut-sweet flavor to your recipes.

How much better than taking patent medicines—sometimes harmful! ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

8 KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

EIGHT persons, including five Chicagoans and three veteran pilots, were killed in the crash of a transport plane last night (August 5) about three miles north of the St. Louis municipal airport. The plane was northbound from New Orleans and crashed a few minutes after taking off from the St. Louis airport. The wreckage is pictured above.

LEWIS SPEEDING ORGANIZATION OF REBEL GROUPS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(UP) Accepting suspension from the American Federation of Labor as final, John L. Lewis accelerated the drive of his "rebel" committee of industrial organization today toward 3,000,000 new members.

Lewis said he had no intention of reopening the case which resulted in suspension of the 10 C. I. O. unions with a membership of 1,000,000 on charges of insurrection and fomenting dual unionism.

William Green, A. F. of L. president, who led the fight to oust Lewis and his associates, likewise declined to comment upon the executive council's action, which, in effect, shattered 50 years of union solidarity.

Further action in the dispute that has kept labor leaders in a furore since last fall is not expected until the A. F. of L. national convention in Tampa, Fla., Nov. 16. Then a credentials committee named by Green will decide if delegates from ousted C. I. O. unions may be seated.

Terming the break in federation ranks "unfortunate," Green said "I've said all I have to say."

He called the council into session on unions which retain their affiliation with the C. I. O.

REPAIR PROJECT AT COURTHOUSE IS POSTPONED

Work on the courthouse cleaning project, conducted by the W. P. A., has been postponed until next week because only one day remains in the current pay period. Officials do not wish to put the building in disorder by placing scaffolds and permitting them to remain idle several days.

The pay period ends Saturday and the next one does not start until next Friday.

Only men will be employed on the work since the cleaning is certain to be difficult. W. P. A. officials have decided.

TO SHERIFF RADCLIFF

OFFICIAL: Your refusal to permit operation of slot machines and other gaming devices has won you many friends. Some have been free with their criticism: "Why didn't he have them taken out sooner?" but they have to learn that you acted as soon as you learned of the machines' presence. When you assumed office five years ago you pledged that, unless you were stopped by a court order, that all such devices must be kept out of Pickaway county. You have followed that ruling ever since, and it has helped you gain the reputation of "One of the best sheriffs Pickaway county ever had." More power to you, sheriff.

TO HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES

NURSES: There are many persons who do not realize the value of our hospital. To many, the fact that nearly 300 persons sought hospital assistance during the last six months was news. Others remarked that the receipts of the institution during that period should have covered the expenditures, as all other businesses are expected to do. The difference between income and expense during the last six months was probably more narrow than in any other six-month period since the institution opened. But that is neither here nor there. Economy is always to be desired, but the good a hospital does in a community cannot be measured in the profit and loss column. The good our hospital does for humanity's sake far outweighs what it costs in dollars and cents. Every person in Circleville is glad that we have such an institution.

TO MAYOR GRAHAM

EXECUTIVE: Your plan to ring a curfew to send juveniles off the streets at 8:30 o'clock is a good one. It should win approval of many Circleville parents. There are scores of boys and girls under 15 years of age who loiter uptown sometimes late at night. Police and juvenile officers have told them to go home, but the youngsters have remained in the streets. You blame much juvenile delinquency on the fact that so many children spend their time around street corners, and I believe in many instances you are correct. The sooner the program goes into effect the better for all concerned.

TO WPA OFFICIALS

FEDERAL MEN: Approval of the courthouse project is pleasing to every person who visit it from time to time. For many years it has been apparent that some work was necessary to make the structure more suitable and more pleasing to the eye. You have co-operated with the county commissioners and other county officials to make the project possible. Work is to start this week, and in a few months' time it is hoped the building from top to bottom and inside and out will be something of which every Pickaway countian can be proud.

TO CITIZENS

FRIENDS: If for no other reason, Circleville should be proud of the federal project that resulted in the unsightly and dangerous traction lines being replaced by a smooth brick street. Many persons who have been away from Circleville for a year or more have remarked this summer about the difference the improvement to Court street makes in the appearance of the city. Court street looks wider, the improvement has eliminated a traction line danger that caused many accidents and at least one fatality. Hundreds of motorists who drive through our fair city have a much better impression of it than they did while the abandoned rails were present.

TO MOTORISTS, PEDESTRIANS

FOLK: Few persons consider the dangers prevalent at all street intersections. A few moments spent at a busy corner this week proved that the struggle between motorists and pedestrians to cross streets is dangerous. Persons behind the steering wheels of big automobiles know that by the right of might and power they have the right-of-way. Others walking believe that since they are human beings automobile drivers are afraid to hit them. It all looks like a matter of different classes traveling about with chips on their shoulders. Would it not be much better for autoists and pedestrians to use common sense methods when they cross uptown corners? Think of what might happen to a person who defies the dangers of an automobile by stepping from the curbing into the path of a heavy car; and what might happen if the motorist accepts the defy by driving his car against the daring person? Let's use good sense, Circleville residents, to prevent fatalities.

TO SCHOOL BOARD

EDUCATORS: Every school child in Circleville is happy to know that you have agreed to have art supervised during the next school year. The Circuiteer believes that one year of art is enough to prove the necessity of a never-ending program. Your choice of Mrs. Downing to teach the art is a wise one. She has had a number of years of experience with children in this line of work, and should fit in nicely with the program Superintendent Frank Fischer has in mind. The school exhibit, held in the spring, created an interest in art work that has been growing day by day. Co-operation of parents, teachers and pupils is needed now to make the program a success.

TO REPUBLICAN WOMEN

CLUB MEMBERS: Selection of Mrs. B. T. Hedges and Mrs. Fannie Kirkpatrick to direct your organization's work is wise. The former will carry the title of county chairman, and the latter of city chairman. There is much work for both chairmen in the coming campaign, so the action of the committee was wise. Both women have been active in politics and are widely known throughout the city and county. Many roses should go to Mrs. Helen Black Anderson for her noble work in the 16 years she was chairman of the woman's organization. She has resigned active service, but her heart will always be with her party.

World At A Glance

—By—
Charles P. Stewart

ENGLAND is beginning to worry over its declining birthrate. A new book by D. V. Glass — "The Struggle for Population"—asserts that methods in vogue in western Europe to check that decline have failed.

Based on 1933 birth and death figures, the population of England and Wales in 2033 (99 years hence), will be less than half its present figure; and over 45 per cent of the population will be more than 60.

France is in worse shape. Germany is gaining, we believe. Italy's gain has been approximately normal in spite of Mussolini's efforts to get it above normal.

The Soviet Union is the nation that is spurring ahead, due to higher living standards and better sanitation and medication than in the past.

Will the countries of western Europe fade away?
Or will they welcome infiltration by many races, many thoughts?
Experts estimate that the population of the United States, also, may begin to decline within 20 years — unless there be an infiltration of vigorous races.

TREND:
Speaking of England—the trend there, too, is Socialistic.
Not much has been said of the recent Derby by-election. But look at the figures.
The Conservatives' majority at the general election a year ago was 12,500.
Now, in this by-election, Labor wins by a majority of 2,753.

BI-UM ALONE?
The Tory British cabinet was said to have been playing hide and seek with France's Socialist Premier Leon Blum on what it intended to do at the Five-Power conference—until the Spanish situation became critical through a possible lineup of Liberal vs. Fascist countries. Then the British government was forced to begin to lean toward the French Socialist government.

Public opinion in England tends more and more toward Blum, forcing the hesitant Baldwin government toward collaboration with France and the Soviet Union.

IN FRANCE
In France, it is significant that Socialists cheered the army on Bastille Day, the day of the annual national review.
The Popular Front is very much interested in national defense — against Fascism.
And it is presumed that the Socialists believe the main body of the army, if not the military command, is sympathetic to the Popular Front.
That, of course, remains to be seen. It never may be tested.

FUNDS ABROAD
It soon may be more difficult than ever for American firms to get funds out of countries in which they have been earned.
It looks as if France may join the long list.
France already has passed a law covering French corporations and French nationals. They must bring back to France all funds and investments abroad — repatriation of funds — by Sept. 1.
The world rapidly is moving toward a primeval barter stage—due to the collapse of economic interchange from strangulation.

READ THIS FIRST:

Gay Elwell, check girl in a prominent Detroit club, meets a member of social elite when she fills a drink at a party at the request of Dr. Wayne Adams. One of them is Dr. Wayne Adams. Gay has a date with him, but leaves him in a huff when he becomes intoxicated and too attentive. Gay is attracted by Wayne Adams but he has shown little interest in her. She goes to the opening of a new night club with Christian Scott, elderly millionaire. At Rose Heath Gay meets Wayne Adams and they stroll on the terrace for a talk. Gay is thrilled when Wayne kisses her. The next day she goes out for supper between double shifts at the checkroom. Wayne runs into Gay at the restaurant.

(NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER 16

WAYNE sat back, accepting defeat with equanimity when Gay said she couldn't take dinner with him.

"Well, that's that. You've showed me exactly where I stand with you. I rated a snub, and I got it."

Gay's heart sank. "I'm not snubbing you. Truly, I'm not." Without actually shrugging, he seemed to. "Don't apologize. I understand perfectly. You have a date with someone else, and you prefer to keep it. What's wrong about that?"

"But it isn't a date. I—well, quite a while ago I promised Jean, the other check girl, that I'd take her place tonight, so she could go out with a friend. I can't go back on my word, no matter how much I'd like to. I commence work at the club again, at six."

Wayne said, "That's a good story. If I were you, I'd stick to it."

"It's the truth," Gay flashed. "You don't have to believe me, if you don't want to. It makes no difference to me."

"Of course it doesn't," Wayne drank his coffee with imperturbable calm. "I'm flattered that you troubled yourself to make such a good alibi."

"You think I'm not telling the truth?"

"Frankly, I don't. I think you're a small little girl, leading me on for the fun of seeing me make a fool of myself. I was so virtuous, wasn't I? Giving you a lecture at the Wilson dinner. Warning Breck not to play around with you. And then falling for your line myself. I ought to be in the funny papers."

He glanced at his watch. "If you've got to be at the club by six, you'd better be on your way. I've noticed that your Mr. Scott, hates to be kept waiting."

Gay jumped to her feet. "You take a good deal for granted, Mr. Adams." She gathered up her bag and gloves. "Good-by."

"Good-by," replied Wayne evenly, rising as she left the table. "Have a good time!"

She walked a square or two from Tabb's, her face burning with rage. How she hated him! How she despised him! Conceding defeat!

Well, that was the end. She'd never speak to him again. Never, as long as she lived!

It was six o'clock exactly when she entered the Pontchartrain, and hurried to the dressing room to put on her uniform. As she slipped into the coatroom, she saw Mr. Carberry standing there waiting for her, an anxious frown darkening his face.

"Glad you're on time, Gay. We've had a little trouble while you were gone. Do you recall checking Miss Pennell's coat?"

Gay glanced about. Jimmy had come up beside her, his freckled face quite pale.

"You must have checked it, before I came on," he stuttered. "I know I didn't."

Gay spoke to Mr. Carberry. "Miss Pennell came in about three this afternoon, with some other girls. I heard them say they were going to play bridge till dinner time. I took their things. It wasn't Jimmy. He didn't relieve me till five."

"You checked Miss Pennell's coat, yourself?"

"Yes. A green coat, trimmed

"Miss Pennell, please. Just a second!"

with leopard. I remember it distinctly."

Gay looked from Jimmy to Mr. Carberry. "I wish you'd tell me what's wrong. Has something been lost?"

"Yes. Miss Pennell's rings and a diamond bracelet. She says—"

A swirling fury of blazing eyes and angry words, Peggy herself flushed toward them, across the lobby. "They're not upstairs," she cried, hysterically. "I've looked everywhere. In the room where we played—in the halls—every-place." She glared at Gay. "I marvel at your nerve, coming back here. You'd better hand my jewels over to me, this minute, or I'll have you arrested!"

Mr. Carberry interrupted. "Miss Pennell, please. Just a second! You really shouldn't accuse one of our employees, until you're quite sure what you're saying."

"I'm sure enough!" Peggy's voice was so high and penetrating, that several people in the lounge turned and stared. "I've always thought this girl looked dishonest. Just a slick little crook, if you ask me. Of course, she'll deny everything—but I'm positive she's the one who checked my coat this afternoon, and I know I left my rings—"

For the first few moments, Gay had been taken so completely by surprise that she was speechless. Under Peggy's vicious attack, her self-control returned.

"I did check your coat, Miss Pennell. But you took your bag with you when you went upstairs. At least, you had it in your hand—"

"I'm not talking about my bag! You know perfectly well the rings and bracelets weren't in that."

Peggy addressed Mr. Carberry. "I'd taken them off here in the lobby, because I hate to play cards with my rings on. She probably saw me wrap them in my handkerchief, and stuck them inside my coat pocket. It's so obvious! Ask her where she's been for the past hour. Or I'll call the police myself and have them question her!"

Gay was sick with terror. "Oh, Miss Pennell," she cried. "You wouldn't have me arrested! I give you my word—"

"Quite unnecessary!" stammered Mr. Carberry. "Quite unnecessary!"

That unfortunate young man was utterly upset and at a loss

what to do, in the temporary absence of the house detective and the manager. "Of course, Miss Pennell, we want to help you find your jewels. But I feel confident that Gay knows nothing about them. She came to us with excellent references!"

"What on earth is going on, over here?" asked Eleanor Randolph, who had made her way through the curious, gaping crowd gathered around the check counter.

She was dressed for dinner, with a summer-ermine wrap flung about her bare shoulders. Nothing more soignée and high-bred could be imagined, as she glanced in surprise from one to another. Even Peggy's noisy rage subsided a trifle.

"This—this girl," she indicated Gay with a sweep of her hand, "has stolen my jewels. My darling square-cut emerald that I gave me—and the two diamonds—and my platinum bracelet."

Miss Randolph moved towards Gay. "Don't you think there's just a chance, Peg, that you're mistaken? You see, I know this little girl rather well." She gave Gay's hand a reassuring touch.

"I'd be quite ready to guarantee that she's honest. Where did you leave your things?"

Peggy spoke sulkily. "In the pocket of my coat. She checked it, and she's responsible. I was just telling the manager we ought to call a policeman in and—"

"I wouldn't do that, if I were you," Miss Randolph advised in her slow, silky voice. "Really, Peggy, you know that you're always mislaying things, and then finding them again five minutes later. It will make you look an awful fool, when your rings turn up. Besides, Miss Elwell could sue you for false arrest, and defamation of character, and ever so many things."

Laughter glinted in Eleanor's eyes, though her expression remained grave. "Any jury would decide in her favor. Can't you picture the headlines? 'Society Heiress—aren't you, Peg?—Society Heiress Pays $50,000 Damages to Pretty Check Girl! The tabloids would love it!'"

Eleanor turned to Gay, while Peggy stood irresolute.

"Don't get fussed, my dear. Personally, I'd tell her to go ahead and call her policeman in!"

How Skin Eruptions of Feet May Be Spread

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

WE HAVE SEEN recently the picture of a man in a country club locker, walking in his bare feet toward the shower, leaving a trail of wet foot-prints. Beneath the picture it says: "Perhaps he is a carrier."

Meaning, of course, that perhaps he is a carrier of ringworm. Well, it is almost certain that he is a carrier if we can believe the latest dermatologic opinion. According to that opinion, ringworm (athlete's foot) is a regular inhabitant of the skin and superficial greases on everyone's foot, whether athlete or esthete. The ringworm is a delicate microscopic plant which grows in thin, spider-web-like strands.

Under certain circumstances they make their way under the skin and produce an itchy, blistering eruption. This is so common that there is hardly anybody over the age of 10 who has not had at least one attack.

Since the saprophyte is always present, the natural question is why doesn't it cause this eruption all the time? What are the circumstances under which this invasion occurs? The fact that it has been nicknamed "athlete's foot" gives us some clue to the matter, because although anyone may acquire it, it is true that it is far commoner in athletes. One reason for this is that athletes, being so on their feet more, there is greater likelihood for small abrasions or cracks to form on the skin, bruises in swimming on rocks or against the sides of swimming pools, etc.

And into these crevices the vegetable threads enter and begin to grow, causing the inflammation reaction on the part of the skin of the feet. Then the athlete is more likely to have the skin of his feet macerated by soap and water in the shower bath, and stand or walk on sloppy floors. And while we all get more or less used to our own saprophytes, we may fall an easy victim to the saprophytes of others, and to these, the athlete is particularly exposed.

Not All Eruptions Ringworm
Not all of the itchy eruptions of the skin, however, are of this nature. Some are due to heat and sweat, gland irritation and some are nervous in origin. The weeping, itchy, cracking skin irritations between the toes, however, are almost all of this kind.

It is gratifying to observe how much we have been able to accomplish during the last few years in prevention of this common pest. In carefully regulated gymnasiums, where rules are strictly enforced, the incidence has been astonishingly reduced. In one college gymnasium, the director tells me that whereas five years ago, practically everybody had some trace of the trouble all the time, now the eruptions are reduced to about 10 per cent of the habits of the gymnasium.

This is accomplished, first, by the insistence on walking over the locked room and shower room with the feet covered by paper shoes. The inspection of the feet of all entrants and the elimination of those who have open eruptions until treatment has been instituted.

The treatment of the eruption in the early stages, as soon as it appears, by application of Whitfield's ointment or other antiseptic lotions is very important. If allowed to go on, the organisms go deeply into the skin layers, and scratching causes secondary pus infections to occur, which greatly complicates the treatment. The X-ray may have to be used in stubborn cases.

Around swimming pools antiseptic solutions in sawdust boxes or buckets, in which the feet can be rinsed before entering the pool, are very valuable aids to prevention.

showed there were less than 1,000 animals left. Now there are thousands on game preserves and in zoos throughout the country.

One of the longest air mail routes in the world is the one that connects England and India. The route totals more than 5,000 miles and crosses 10 countries.

Young People Enjoy Kid Party at Given Residence

Many Take Part In Novel Affair; Prizes Given

An extremely delightful time was had Thursday by a group of young people when Miss Lydia Given, daughter of Mrs. H. B. Given, entertained at her home in E. Main street.

The novelty of the entertainment added much to the enjoyment. She invited the group to participate in a kid's party and asked the guests to come dressed in children's costumes.

The lawn was lighted with bright colored lanterns where children's games were played. Balloons were presented as favors and a small child's lunch of ice cream cones, rabbit cookies and suckers carried out the idea planned.

Elsie Anne Bremer won the prize in the bean guessing contest, Mary Catherine May was successful in pinning the tail on the donkey, and John Moore carried off the prize in the peanut hunt.

Rosemary Hammel and Bobby Fickhart were awarded prizes for the most childish costumes.

At a late hour the group went to the C. A. C. hall where they enjoyed dancing the rest of the evening.

Invited were the Misses Margie Mader, Doris Moffitt, Mary Catherine May, Catherine Moore, Anne Thayer, Jean Cryder, Elsie Anne Bremer, Jane Littleton, Mary Ann Sapp, Mary Newmyer, Ruby Chalfin, Rosemary Hammel, Dorothy Beatty and Anne Vierebone, Mary Jane Schlear, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phebus, James Henderson, James Reichelderfer, John Robinson, David Jackson, Billy Kellstadt, Dick Mader, Joe Bell, Burn Jones, John Moore, George Speakman, Horace Gilmore, Bobby Fickard, Richard Weldon, Jack Foreman, Otis Mader, Laddie Goeller, and James Lyle.

Miss Clara Story of Washington C. H. was an out-of-town guest.

Grange Picnic
Picnics hold the spotlight in the social activities of the different organizations of the city and county. One of the most delightful of these was the Washington Grange outing which was held Thursday afternoon at the Gold Cliff Chateau.

A group of 80 members and their families and friends came early with well-filled baskets to spend the day.

Various games and contests were planned for their pleasure and swimming was enjoyed.

Miss Mildred Shaner of the Logan Elm Grange was a guest.

U. B. Missionary Society
The Women's Missionary society of the United Brethren church held its monthly meeting in the community house Thursday afternoon.

The president, Mrs. James Trimmer, was in charge of the business session which was opened with song and prayer.

Reports of various officers were given and announcement was made of the District Rally to be held in October, in the Circleville church.

One new member, Mrs. Ellen Davis, was added to the roll.

Mrs. Orpha Kirkwood was program leader and gave an interesting talk on mission work in Porto Rico and Santa Domingo. A reading was given by Mrs. Frank Hawks and a letter from a mission worker was read by Mrs. Trimmer.

Robertson Turns to Flash Because of Need of Best To Defeat Germans

SMALLWOOD STRICKEN

Quarter Miler Removed to Hospital After Attack of Appendicitis

OLYMPIC STADIUM, BERLIN, Aug. 7. — (UP) — Jesse Owens, the triple Olympic winner from Ohio State, may get a chance to make it a quadruple.

Head coach Lawson Robertson of the American team indicated today that he was considering using Owens in the 400-meter relay in place of Martin Glickman of New York City.

Robertson had virtually decided yesterday to run Ralph Metcalfe of the Marquette club, Glickman, and Sam Stoller of Cincinnati but now there is the possibility also that Foy Draper of Whittier, Cal., may replace Metcalfe.

Explaining why he contemplated drafting Owens the coach said: "My idea is to pick the team I think most likely to win. Germany has a whole of a team and we will need to be at our best."

OLYMPIC STADIUM, BERLIN, Aug. 7. — (UP) — Harold Smallwood of Ventura, Cal., one of three Americans scheduled to run in today's Olympic 400-meter semi-final, was taken to Olympic village hospital this morning suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

While his hopes of a one-two-three finish in the 400 were ended, America's chances in the decathlon soared as Bob Clark, Jack Parker and Glenn Morris led the field at the end of competition in the first two of ten events.

Smallwood, who survived two qualifying tests yesterday along with Archie Williams and Jimmy Luvall, was placed in bed with ice packs on his side. Physicians began an immediate examination to determine if an operation was necessary. It was certain that he would not run in today's semi-finals and finals.

The California star was stricken similarly on the liner Manhattan which brought the American team to Berlin. It was one of a series of attacks that had bothered him several years.

A crowd of 40,000 sat in hazy weather and watched the start of the decathlon "zehnkampf" in German which means "ten fights." At the end of the first event, the 100-meter run, Clark of the San Francisco Olympic club held the lead with 872 points. He led also in the second event, the broad jump, getting the jump on the field of 25 with 1849 points.

Jack Parker of Sacramento Junior college, Cal., was second with 1634 points and Glen Morris, the Denver automobile salesman who holds the world record, was third with 1610.

Clark and Morris both covered the 100-meter course this morning in the best time ever recorded in an Olympic decathlon. Clark's time was 10.9 seconds and Morris' 11.1. The best previous decathlon time was 11.2. Parker did the 100 in 11.4.

Armin Guehl of Switzerland was fourth at the end of the morning round with 1575 points; Jerzy Plawczyk of Poland was fifth and Edwin Huber of Germany was sixth.

This afternoon (11 a. m. EDT) the decathlon entrants will compete in high jump and 400-meters. Tomorrow the events will be concluded with competition in 110-meter hurdles, discus throw, pole vault, javelin throw, and shot put.

Points are awarded according to times and distances with the man with the highest score winning. Clark jumped 25 feet flat in the broad jump, the best leap of any contestant. Parker was second with 24 feet, 1 1/2 inches. Morris was fifth with a leap of 22 feet and 10 and 13-32 inches.

One of the British Olympic 1,500-meter race entries is named William Shakespeare.

BORROR'S SMASH BOOSTS DAIRY 9 TO LEAGUE LEAD

Max Borrer's home run in the first inning with the sacks loaded put the Pickaway Dairy on the road to a 9 to 1 victory over the Eschelman Feeds. The victory puts the Dairy in first place, a half game ahead of the Eagles.

Maloney was the Dairy pitcher while John Valentine was on the hill for the Feeds. Tonight the Fats and Leans play.

About This And That In Many Sports

Saunders to Leave

New Holland has lost an athletic coach, one of the best in the county. Shadel Saunders has accepted employment at Central high school, Columbus, his alma mater, as a teacher, but it is expected he will be having something to do in athletics under Dave Parks and Guy Kessler.

Outlook Somewhat Dull

It has been known for quite a while that Saunders would take a job in Columbus if he could get it. The salary would be more attractive than at New Holland. The outlook for Bulldog athletics has dropped considerably since Everett Landman has graduated. Saunders has been playing ball part of the summer with Mike Helfrich's crew. He has not notified the New Holland board of his intentions.

Guthrie for Job?

There is a possibility that a former Circleville high school coach may become athletic director and principal of the New Holland school. He is J. M. Guthrie, who went to New Holland from Athens county as a teacher last fall. Guthrie had some success in the local school and should make a valuable addition to the county staff, providing he is an applicant.

Teams Successful

Saunders' teams have been successful. He has had the good fortune to have tall and capable Everett Landman in school all through his regime. Another factor aiding Saunders was the dyed-in-the-soul fighting spirit of New Holland's athletes. His teams have won several championships in football and track, and his leaving removes a very capable coach. Saunders starred at Ohio university, Athens, before becoming mentor at New Holland. He was widely known and admired for his ability.

OWENS MAY HAVE CHANCE AT FOURTH OLYMPIC CHAMPIONSHIP

OHIO SPEEDER CONSIDERED FOR SPOT IN RELAY

Robertson Turns to Flash Because of Need of Best To Defeat Germans

SMALLWOOD STRICKEN

Quarter Miler Removed to Hospital After Attack of Appendicitis

OLYMPIC STADIUM, BERLIN, Aug. 7. — (UP) — Jesse Owens, the triple Olympic winner from Ohio State, may get a chance to make it a quadruple.

Head coach Lawson Robertson of the American team indicated today that he was considering using Owens in the 400 meters relay in place of Martin Glickman of New York City.

Robertson had virtually decided yesterday to run Ralph Metcalfe of the Marquette club, Glickman, Frank Wyckoff of Glendale, Cal., and Sam Stoller of Cincinnati but now there is the possibility also that Foy Draper of Whittier, Cal. may replace Metcalfe.

Explaining why he contemplated drafting Owens the coach said: "My idea is to pick the team I think most likely to win. Germany has a whole of a team and we will need to be at our best."

OLYMPIC STADIUM, BERLIN, Aug. 7. — (UP) — Harold Smallwood of Ventura, Cal., one of three Americans scheduled to run in today's Olympic 400-meter semi-finals, was taken to Olympic village hospital this morning suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

While his hopes of a one-two-three finish in the 400 were ended, America's chances in the decathlon soared as Bob Clark, Jack Parker and Glenn Morris led the field at the end of competition in the first two of ten events.

Smallwood, who survived two qualifying tests yesterday along with Archie Williams and Jimmy Luvalle, was placed in bed with ice packs on his side. Physicians began an immediate examination to determine if an operation was necessary. It was certain that he would not run in today's semi-finals and finals.

The California star was stricken similarly on the liner Manhattan which brought the American team to Berlin. It was one of a series of attacks that had bothered him several years.

A crowd of 40,000 sat in hazy weather and watched the start of the decathlon—"zehnkampf" in German which means "ten fights." At the end of the first event, the 100-meter run, Clark, of the San Francisco Olympic club held the lead with 872 points. He led also in the second event, the broad jump, getting the jump on the field of 35 with 1849 points.

Jack Parker of Sacramento Junior college, Cal., was second with 1634 points and Glen Morris, the Denver automobile salesman who holds the world record, was third with 1610.

Clark and Morris both covered the 100-meter course this morning in the best time ever recorded in an Olympic decathlon. Clark's time was 10.9 seconds and Morris' 11.1. The best previous decathlon time was 11.2. Parker did the 100 in 11.4.

Armin Guehl of Switzerland was fourth at the end of the morning round with 1575 points. Jerzy Plawczyk of Poland was fifth and Erwin Huber of Germany was sixth.

This afternoon (11 a. m. EDT) the decathlon entrants will compete in high jump and 400-meters. Tomorrow the events will be concluded with competition in 110-meter hurdles, discus throw, pole vault, javelin throw, and shot put.

Points are awarded according to times and distances with the man with the highest score winning. Clark jumped 25 feet flat in the broad jump, the best leap of any contestant. Parker was second with 24 feet, 1 1/2 inches. Morris was fifth with a leap of 22 feet and 10 and 13-32 inches.

One of the British Olympic 1,500-meter race entries is named William Shakespeare.

BORROR'S SMASH BOOSTS DAIRY 9 TO LEAGUE LEAD

Max Borrer's home run in the first inning with the sacks loaded put the Pickaway Dairy on the road to a 9 to 1 victory over the Eschelman Feeds. The victory puts the Dairy in first place, a half game ahead of the Eagles.

Maloney was the Dairy pitcher while John Valentine was on the hill for the Feeds.

Tonight the Fats and Leans play.

About This And That In Many Sports

Saunders to Leave

New Holland has lost an athletic coach, one of the best in the county — Shadel Saunders has accepted employment at Central high school, Columbus, his alma mater, as a teacher, but it is expected he will be having something to do in athletics under Dave Parks and Guy Kessler. ***

Outlook Somewhat Dull

It has been known for quite a while that Saunders would take a job in Columbus if he could get it. The salary would be more attractive than at New Holland — The outlook for Bulldog athletics has dropped considerably since Everett Landman has graduated — Saunders has been playing ball part of the summer with Mike Helfrich's crew — He has not notified the New Holland board of his intentions. ***

Guthrie for Job?

There is a possibility that a former Circleville high school coach may become athletic director and principal of the New Holland school — He is J. M. Guthrie, who went to New Holland from Athens county as a teacher last fall — Guthrie had some success in the local school and should make a valuable addition to the county staff, providing he is an applicant. ***

Teams Successful

Saunders' teams have been successful — He has had the good fortune to have tall and capable Everett Landman in school all through his regime — Another factor aiding Saunders was the dyed-in-the-soul fighting spirit of New Holland's athletes — His teams have won several championships in football and track, and his leaving removes a very capable coach — Saunders starred at Ohio university, Athens, before becoming mentor at New Holland — He was widely known and admired for his ability. ***

Karen Morley to Appear With Jolson in Theatre's "Jazz Singer"

AIR VERSION OF FAMOUS PICTURE TO PLAY MONDAY

Rudy Vallee Presents New Champion Caller for Husbands

Karen Morley, one of the few actresses the film industry found living almost at its doorstep in Hollywood, will play the leading feminine role opposite Al Jolson in "The Jazz Singer" Monday night, August 10, on the Radio Theatre. The radio version of the Samson Raphaelson play, which was also the first talking picture, will be broadcast over a WABC-CBS network at 8:00 P. M. (EST).

Miss Morley was graduated from Hollywood High School and the University of California and selected as a Wampas baby star in 1931. In "The Jazz Singer" she plays the role of Mary Dale, singer in a Broadway stage show. When Jolson, as Jakie Rabinowitz, runs away from home he meets Mary Dale, who introduces him to her producer and thereafter becomes an important part of his life and career.

Miss Morley's appearances in "Never The Twain Shall Meet," "Inspiration" and "Politics" placed her among the Wampas baby stars. The honor brought her important parts in "Scarface," "Arsene Lupin," "Fast Life" and "Gabriel Over the White House." Later she appeared in "Dinner at Eight," "The Crime Doctor," "Wednesday's Child," "Our Daily Bread," "Ten Dollar Raise," "The Healer," "Black Fury," "Thunder in the Night" and "The Littlest Rebel."

Other members of the cast to be selected by Cecil B. DeMille, producer of the Radio Theatre, will be announced later.

CHAMPION HUSBAND-CALLER

A champion husband-caller was heard on Rudy Vallee's Variety

Hour on Thursday along with Ricardo Cortez, the screen star, and Niela Goodelle, popular radio and musical comedy singer.

Mrs. William Underwood, of Mt. Tom, Mass., is the expert in summoning husbands. She was the winner this year of the Hampshire County (Mass.) Grange Husband Calling contest. At the Underwood farm the buildings and fields are situated across a busy highway from the house so Mrs. Underwood has been forced to put unusual vigor into the call of "Will—yum" at mealtime. This practice enabled her to shout down all competitors at the annual contest. On the Vallee Hour this contest was dramatized with both Mrs. Underwood and "Will—yum" present to play their own roles.

Cortez played the lead in a drama and Miss Goodelle was heard in several new popular tunes, one of which will be a duet with Rudy.

In case the hot weather is bothering you, your radio can be used as an air-conditioning unit next Thursday when Bob Hope and the "Atlantic Family" ride the Columbia airways at 7 p. m. on a radio dash to the North Pole.

Motivated by a search for adventure, a breath of cool air and some shaved ice, Bob Hope, Honey Chile, Red Nicholas, Cousin Skunkton, and the Songsmiths will pull for the Pole, where Bob will give a blow by blow description of an Arctic gale. Honey Chile has promised to bring to the microphone an Eskimo boy friend whose name seems to be Uglumig, a native of Katchaskatchkan on Gonnago Strait.

Karen Morley to Appear With Jolson in Theatre's "Jazz Singer"

AIR VERSION OF FAMOUS PICTURE TO PLAY MONDAY

Rudy Vallee Presents New Champion Caller for Husbands

Karen Morley, one of the few actresses the film industry found living almost at its doorstep in Hollywood, will play the leading feminine role opposite Al Jolson in "The Jazz Singer" Monday night, August 10, on the Radio Theatre. The radio version of the Samson Raphaelson play, which was also the first talking picture, will be broadcast over a WABC-CBS network at 8:00 P. M. (EST).

Miss Morley was graduated from Hollywood High School and the University of California and selected as a Wampas baby star in 1931. In "The Jazz Singer" she plays the role of Mary Dale, singer in a Broadway stage show. When Jolson, as Jakie Rabinowitz, runs away from home he meets Mary Dale, who introduces him to her producer and thereafter becomes an important part of his life and career.

Miss Morley's appearances in "Never The Twain Shall Meet," "Inspiration" and "Politics" placed her among the Wampas baby stars. The honor brought her important parts in "Scarface," "Arsene Lupin," "Fast Life" and "Gabriel Over the White House." Later she appeared in "Dinner at Eight," "The Crime Doctor," "Wednesday's Child," "Our Daily Bread," "Ten Dollar Raise," "The Healer," "Black Fury," "Thunder in the Night," and "The Littlest Rebel."

Other members of the cast to be selected by Cecil B. DeMille, producer of the Radio Theatre, will be announced later.

CHAMPION HUSBAND-CALLER

A champion husband-caller was heard on Rudy Vallee's Variety

Hour on Thursday along with Ricardo Cortez, the screen star, and Niela Goodelle, popular radio and musical comedy singer.

Mrs. William Underwood, of Mt. Tom, Mass., is the expert in summoning husbands. She was the winner this year of the Hampshire County (Mass.) Grange Husband Calling contest. At the Underwood farm the buildings and fields are situated across a busy highway from the house so Mrs. Underwood has been forced to put unusual vigor into the call of "Will—yum" at mealtime. This practice enabled her to shut down all competitors at the annual contest. On the Vallee Hour this contest was dramatized with both Mrs. Underwood and "Will—yum" present to play their own roles.

Cortez played the lead in a drama and Miss Goodelle was heard in several new popular tunes, one of which will be a duet with Rudy.

In case the hot weather is bothering you, your radio can be used as an air-conditioning unit next Thursday when Bob Hope and the "Atlantic Family" ride the Columbia airways at 7 p. m. on a radio dash to the North Pole.

Motivated by a search for adventure, a breath of cool air and some shaved ice, Bob Hope, Honey Chile, Red Nicholas, Cousin Skunkton, and the Songsmiths will pull for the Pole, where Bob will give a blow by blow description of an Arctic gale. Honey Chile has promised to bring to the microphone an Eskimo boy friend whose name seems to be Uglumug, a native of Katchaskatchkan on Gonnago Strait.

CLARKSBURG HOMECOMING AND FIELD DAY ATTRACTS BIG CROWD

JOHNSON SOUNDS PRAISE OF NEW DEAL

Assistant Commerce Secretary Cites National Gains Of Last Three Years

BRICKER ON PROGRAM

GOP Candidate Strikes Out At Democrats — Allison Sounds Defense

Hundreds of visitors from Pickaway and several other counties gathered in the Clarksburg grove Thursday afternoon and evening for the annual Clarksburg homecoming and field day. The afternoon crowd was estimated at 1,500 and the evening gathering nearly 2,500.

Rainfall in the morning failed to check the enthusiasm of the community, and by noon a large crowd had gathered. A softball game for girls was postponed because of the rain.

Good fellowship and renewal of friendships prevailed during the day. The gathering provided candidates for office an opportunity to get in a lot of good "licks". The afternoon crowd was predominated by Republicans since Attorney General John Bricker was the speaker, but Democrats held sway in the evening when William G. Pickrel, former lieutenant governor, was scheduled. He was detained in Detroit, however, and Mr. Ray Allison, director of finance for the state spoke.

The afternoon started with an address by Colonel J. Monroe Johnson, assistant secretary of commerce. Sent from Washington, the speaker stressed the improvement in automobile, steel and farming industries in the last three years.

"During three years," he said "automobile sales have almost tripled in the United States. Farm income increase in Ohio amounted to $175,000,000. Steel production has more than doubled. Exports have climbed $700,000,000; employment now stands at the highest peak of the recovery with 6,000,000 more persons employed than at the depression low of 1933."

Attorneys.
(July 21, 28, Aug. 6, 13, 20) D.

Colonel Johnson said the expenditures of the Roosevelt administration should be considered as investments since much of the money used for recovery will come back.

Bricker on Program

Attorney General Bricker, who was accompanied to the field day by his mother and twin sister, urged Ohioans to continue to show an interest in government, "and," he said, "forces now at work to tear it down will be defeated."

Mr. Bricker told his listeners that never before have citizens of Ohio been in such close contact with their federal government, with farm production being regulated in Washington and more governmental functions than ever before being transferred there.

"Every child born into the United States today," the official continued, "has a $300 debt hanging over its head as a result of the spending campaign carried on in the nation's capital. If Ohioans can be enlightened concerning government, and shown an interest in what is going on, it is certain our government, dedicated to democracy, will survive."

Mr. Bricker's talk was brief. He spent the remainder of the afternoon greeting friends and making new acquaintances.

G. O. P. Leaders Present

During the afternoon many Pickaway county Republican leaders appeared in the assemblage. They included C. C. Chappell, Mrs. B. T. Hedges, Mrs. Helen Black Anderson, John E. Walters, Lemuel Weldon, Mayor W. J. Graham and many others. Nelson Dunlap, venerable Kingston follower of the G.O.P. banner, was present with his son, Renick W., former assistant director of agriculture in Coolidge and Hoover administrations.

Harold Claypool of Chillicothe, nominee for congress and Clark Hunsicker, representative, were about the only Democratic candidates brave enough to face the overwhelming Republican gathering in the afternoon. But in the evening all the Democratic candidates made their way to the picnic grounds to take part in the celebration.

Women Serve Food

All during the day ladies of the Clarksburg churches served fish and chicken in bounteous amounts. There was not a hungry person in the grove. Rev. Grover C. Reed of the Clarksburg M. E. church handled the microphone and kept a steady crowd of visitors moving past the lunch and ice cream stands by his urging. The Rev. Mr. Reed also introduced the various speakers and called attention to the industrial exhibits, auction and various events.

During the afternoon the Stony Creek CCC boys defeated a Clarksburg baseball team 13 to 12.

After time out for supper, the crowd awaited the arrival of Mr. Pickrel, but was informed after a short while that he could not attend, and that Mr. Allison had been sent in his place.

The speaker discussed the large amounts of money spent by the state for old age pensions and other social charities during the Davey administration. He praised the efforts of Governor Davey to remove the sales tax from food through a popular vote this fall. "This move is one of the finest made since his administration started," the crowd was told. Mr. Allison told of the efforts of state officials to operate their departments to satisfy the greatest number of persons.

Amateur Contest

When he had completed his talk the amateur contest, conducted by Sam Waldon of Chillicothe, was organized. In it were 30 acts, some with only one person entered and others with five.

Winners, adjudged by the applause of the crowd, were Jackie Harper, eight-year-old Washington C. H. tap dancer, 15; Elizabeth and Alfred Anderson of Williamsport, on two guitars, 10; and

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

Where there is no vision, the people perish.—Proverbs 29:18.

Henry Kamfoth of Ashville, her husband, and Mrs. Harry McManus of Worthington, her daughter, are named beneficiaries of the estate of Mary E. Klamfoth in the will filed in probate court. The value of the estate is not estimated. The husband is named executor.

The Retail Merchants' association will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Nathan Groban, president, urges a full attendance since program for August and September will be presented.

Elmer E. Wolf and Billy Valentine attended the Greene county fair in Xenia Friday.

Miss Ladine Essig of Newark, employed last week as a teacher for upper elementary grades at Jackson township, has informed the board she will not accept since she has another position in Toledo. The board will meet soon to name a successor.

Application was made for a marriage license in Columbus Thursday by John F. Landrum, 28, athletic director, Circleville, and Ruth Mees, 23, 2311 E. Main street, Columbus.

John W. Bricker, candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, informed Circleville Republicans at the Clarksburg homecoming Thursday that the G. O. P. campaign would be opened on Sept. 10 at Mt. Sterling instead of in August. The action was taken, he said, because of the Madison county fair and the Ohio fair.

Mayor Harry Margulis of Ashville has appointed Harry Grove, deputy probate judge, as a member of the village council to fill the unexpired term of A. E. Petty. Wade Canter, chosen at a recent meeting of council for the position, could not accept since he holds a position as distributor of surplus commodities under the W. P. A.

New Holland has voted to permit Arch post American Legion to conduct a fall festival Sept. 9 to 12. Council had earlier refused to grant permission.

There is one more child of school age in Pickaway county this year than in 1935, the enumeration just completed discloses. The figure for the 1936-37 year is 6,068; last year it was 6,067. Of the number 3,107 are boys and 2,961 are girls.

The fire department was called to W. Main street Thursday evening when wiring on a transient automobile caught fire. Firemen did not learn the name or residence of the motorists.

Sales tax money amounting to $2,398.74 was distributed by the county auditor Thursday to townships.

Jack Folk of Columbus, novelty guitar act, $5.

Largely responsible for this year's successful field day were Mrs. E. L. Hurst, president of the Clarksburg Ladies' Aid, Pryor B. Timmons, secretary of the affair; Will Anderson, chairman of the executive committee, and the Rev. Mr. Reed.

Next year it is planned to obtain an outstanding speaker to draw additional hundreds to the homecoming. An effort was made this year to obtain Father Coughlin or Dr. Townsend, both national figures, but they were contacted after all their dates for this time of the year were filled.

Attention of Pickaway counties was turned toward Commercial Point today for the opening of the annual two-day celebration. The Legion drum corps will take part in a parade Saturday. Many events such as horse pulling and other interesting contests, are planned.

LIFE AND LOVES NEAR EXPOSURE

that quoted sections of Miss Astor's diary. Later, in testimony, Astor admitted a love affair with Kaufman.

Hollywood both hoped and feared that additional names would come to light. Rumors of the contents of the diary have assumed alarming proportions around the cocktail bars and other meeting places. One report was that some 10 prominent men of Hollywood are mentioned romantically in the passages.

Another disclosure by Anderson brought home to troubled Hollywood the often-repeated adage that "all servants have big ears." Anderson said the "tip off" on Miss Astor's diary came from a house servant. It was reported in one quarter that a volume of the diary was found in an unlocked drawer in the room where four year old Marilyn, object of the bitter court fight between Miss Astor and Dr. Thorpe slept.

Servants of the exclusive Toluca Lake district, where is the Astor home, were said to have discussed intimate parts of the Astor diary even before Thorpe and his attorneys knew of its existence.

Both Dr. Thorpe and Miss Astor appeared under a strain. The athletic Dr. Thorpe issued a bitter statement in which he said he "was through talking to newspapermen."

"Every time I open my mouth they print a column," said the doctor. "An example is the New York city and other places. Many of the things published as purported excerpts from the diary are not phrases from the book. As a matter of fact the only real 'quotes' from the diary are those used by my attorneys in papers on file in the lawsuit."

"Informal conversations have been exaggerated into interviews. Some of the incidents referred to in purported quotations from the diary did not occur."

Miss Astor stole quietly from the studio where she was working last night and entered her home secretly. Later servants reported by telephone that she was not at home.

Samuel Goldwyn, producer of the current Astor picture, barred newspapermen and other visitors from the set. He said he was "trying to finish up with Miss Astor by Saturday."

"Mary is a trouper," said a Goldwyn spokesman, "but you never can tell. She might 'blow up' under pressure if we let people see her and then where would we be?"

Meanwhile, Dr. Thorpe's attorneys planned to force Miss Astor's appearance in court again tonight to answer questions bearing ships and corporations. Circleville received $1,193.82.

County highway officials and employees were at Indian Lake Friday enjoying an outing for four divisions. Charles Mowery, superintendent of state roads in Pickaway county, headed the local delegation.

Charles Fast of Columbus, endorsed by Circleville lodge of Elks, has been appointed district deputy grand exalted ruler for the district in which the Circleville lodge is located. He succeeds Robert Dunkle of Chillicothe.

pointed Robert D. Musser in charge of light harness and saddle entries, and Bernard Young in charge of draft horses. Several additional divisions are planned. The premium list for the draft horse show is $384, the largest since the horse show was renewed. The premiums for the saddle class have not been decided. The horse show, as usual, will be held on E. Main street.

The Pumpkin Show directors plan to ask the Rotary club to again sponsor solicitation of funds to finance the show. Solicitation is planned the last week in September with Mr. Parrett and R. G. Colville, treasurer, to make a "clean up" after the club has completed its work.

Harry Lane has been appointed by Jack Mavis, director of the fowl department. Prizes in the turkey exhibit have been increased from 75 cents and 50 cents to $1 and 75 cents.

J. E. Walters, director of Department No. 6, has named Charles Stoffer in charge of the corn exhibit since Harry B. Denman is unable to serve. Despite the drought it is expected that enough good corn will be produced in Pickaway county to make the exhibit a success. The ravages of the drought have affected several division chairmen, Press Hosler, in charge of pumpkins, facing one of the big tasks of the show to obtain enough entries to fill his section.

T. D. Krinn, who presided at Wednesday's meeting in the absence of Mayor W. J. Graham, reported he is working on his free acts and music, but has not yet completed the task.

Another meeting of directors will be held later in the month at which time the premium lists will be distributed.

on her charges that Dr. Thorpe was married at the time he married her at Yuma, Ariz., in 1931.

Dr. Thorpe's involved marital past was further complicated when he admitted to having married Mrs. Laura Adams, a widow and mother of two children, whom he subsequently divorced.
